Write a paragraph on the topic “How Good is Fast Food?”

How Good is Fast Food?

Fast food is tasty ,but is it really good for you. People must avoid eating fast food as it provides very little nutrition. It slowly makes one fat and eventually causes many health problems. It has too much of fat, sugar and carbohydrates that do not gives us the energy we need throughout the day. Often after eating fast food, people may feel sluggish and even still hungry. Most fast food are deep fried in oil and has many calories. This goes to show that food that taste great does not makes one feel great.
