

St. Lawrence High School
A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION
27, BALLYGUNGE CIRCULAR ROAD, KOLKATA 700019

2nd Term

CLASS – IV

ANSWER: WORKSHEET – 14
SUBJECT – ENGLISH TEXT LESSON – THE FLOOD

DATE: 08.06.2020

1. Fill in the blanks:-

- a) And so when the rain began to fall, Deucalion drew from its shelter a boat.
- b) Day and night the boat drifted.
- c) Deucalion and Pyrrha knew that all the people had been drowned.

2. Complete the sentences:-

- a) Deucalion and Pyrrha sat in the boat and floated away safely.
- b) The tops of the trees, the hills and the mountains were hidden by the flood.
- c) While they were talking and trying to think what they should do, they heard a voice behind them.

3. Answer the following questions:-

- a) What had Deucalion often told the people?

Ans: Deucalion had often told the people that unless they left off their evil ways they would be punished in the end.

- b) Where had Deucalion gone once every year?

Ans: Deucalion had gone to the land of the Caucasus to talk with his father, Prometheus once every year.

- c) What had Prometheus warned his son about?

Ans: Prometheus had warned his son to be ready as Jupiter, the God, would send a flood to destroy the mankind from the earth.

- d) Why were Deucalion and Pyrrha sad after the rainstorm?

Ans: Deucalion and Pyrrha were sad after the rainstorm, for they knew that they were the only persons who were left alive in all the land.

4. Reference to context:-

“Is there anything you wish? Tell me and you shall have whatever you want”.

- a) Name the lesson.

Ans: The name of the lesson is “The Flood”.

- b) Who said these words?

Ans: A noble young prince, named Mercury said these words.

c) To whom were these words spoken to?

Ans: These words were spoken to Deucalion and Pyrrha.

d) What made the speaker ask them?

Ans: The speaker had noticed that they were sad and he wondered what would become of them all alone in the wide world.

e) What did Deucalion and Pyrrha wish for?

Ans: Deucalion and Pyrrha wished to see the land full of people once more as they found that the world would be a lonely place without neighbours and friends.

5. Sequence the sentences as per the story:-

a) The noble prince was seen no more.

b) Deucalion and Pyrrha were all alone in the wide world.

c) Deucalion had built a boat for such a time.

d) A young prince named Mercury was standing on one of the rocks above them.

e) Without neighbours and friends the world is a very lonely place.

Ans:

a) Deucalion had built a boat for such a time.

b) Deucalion and Pyrrha were all alone in the wide world.

c) A young prince named Mercury was standing on one of the rocks above them.

d) Without neighbours and friends the world is a very lonely place.

e) The noble prince was seen no more.