A. Answer the following questions below:

Q1. What happens when the sunlight shines?

As the sunlight shines, everything seems to be bright in colour. It looks as if it is just made. The leaves and the grass are green as could be possible.

Q2. Which part of the day is the person saying the poem and why?

The person is telling us the poem at night. The child is on his way to bed. He is telling us about how the day went before going to bed.
